

STORY OF ST. JOE

PHOTO ONE

- In this photo I took a picture of the sign in the front of the school. On this sign reads, “St. Joseph High School a catholic tradition of excellence.” This sign shows that St. Joe is a school based on tradition and great Catholic education.

- In this photo I took a picture of the statue of St Joseph. This photo shows the spiritual side of our school and the catholic values we practice.

PHOTO THREE

- This is a picture of the red brick building at St. Joe. This building is one of the oldest buildings in Hammonton. Being such an old building, it shows the history of St Joe, and it is also interesting to think about all of the students and staff that have worked and studied in that building for all the years it has been standing.

PHOTO FIVE

- This is a photo of a quote on the wall that says “Enter to learn about Christ, leave to serve him.” This shows how catholic values are installed in us when we come here. Also in this photo are decorated lockers. These lockers show the school spirit students have at St, Joe and the different athletics students are involved in.

- This is a photo of a statue of the Blessed Mother behind flowers. Once again, the statue represents the catholic values of St Joe. The flowers in the photo show how the campus is decorated

- This is a photo of the word, “Wildcats” above the softball teams dugout. This photo shows that St. Joe is home of the wildcats and we take pride in our sports teams.

PHOTO EIGHT

- This is a photo of a banner in the front of the school. Just like main sign for the school it shows how St. Joe is based on tradition and great catholic education.

- This is a photo of students at St Joe. This shows the education side to the school and the work students do here. Also In this photo shows the school uniforms which are a big part of our school.

PHOTO TEN

- This is a photo of a post outside the school that reads the name of the school followed by a peace sign. This shows the positive attitude at St. Joe and the peace we spread to the world.
